

Addie Elizabeth Jones

addiej@uark.edu | 870-577-0389 | www.linkedin.com/in/addie-jones-b5a5b6250

EDUCATION

University of Arkansas | Fayetteville, AR | May 2026

Journalism and Political Science major with minors in Gender Studies, Nonprofit Studies, and Rhetoric Writing

Fulbright Honors College Sturgis Fellow | Cumulative GPA: 3.883

Honors Thesis: Statistical Literacy in Education Journalism

Related Coursework: Campaigns, Public Policy, Administrative Law, Media Law, Government and the Media

EXPERIENCE

Government Affairs Intern (May 2025 – Present)

Center on Budget and Policy Priorities

- Track federal legislation through congressional process and attend hearings to summarize policy debates
- Prepare briefing materials and maintain databases for advocacy coalition partners and policymakers

Legislative Policy Intern (December 2024 – Present)

Democratic Party of Arkansas

- Evaluate proposed state legislation based on alignment with progressive policy priorities and impact on underrepresented communities, specifically focusing on educational equity
- Track key policy developments and identify key media moments in education and commerce committees

Content Writing Intern (May 2024 – Present)

Sam M. Walton College of Business

- Write and edit a weekly newsletter sent out to 17,000+ students, staff, parents, and alumni
- Cultivate relationships with campus organizations to source and maintain a comprehensive resource database

Lifestyles Editor (May 2023 – Present)

Arkansas Traveler Newspaper

- Edit and curate arts, culture, entertainment, and opinion content for 30,000+ readers
- Lead weekly editorial meetings while managing content strategy and adhering to AP style guidelines

Marketing and Communications Intern (August 2023 – April 2024)

Art Bridges Foundation

- Crafted compelling public-facing narratives about foundation programs reaching underserved communities
- Conducted comprehensive copy edits for museum partners' exhibition texts and curatorial statements

LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES

Democracy Fellows (April 2025 – Present)

Marketing and Public Relations Officer for campus civic engagement organization

- Develop social media strategy and voter education content addressing barriers to democratic participation
- Coordinate cross-campus partnerships to expand voter registration drives and civic engagement initiatives

Young Democrats at UofA (August 2024 - Present)

President of the university chapter of political organization Young Democrats

- Coordinate biweekly meetings, civic education, and political engagement initiatives for 100+ student members
- Partner with local political organizations and candidates to create networking and volunteer opportunities
- Led campaign for the historic election of Diana Gonzales Worthen, Arkansas's first Latina state representative

Arkansas Delta Delta Delta (August 2022 – Present)

Director of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion for a sorority with 600+ members

- Promote inclusion and social awareness within the chapter while supporting diverse initiatives across campus
- Developed a comprehensive database of minority-owned and sustainable businesses for chapter partnerships

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Lemke Journalism Project (2024 – Present)

Student Mentor for a multicultural journalism mentorship program

- Serve as a guide to 50+ high school students interested in diversity writing about journalism at the UofA
- Assist in the culmination and publication of a student-written Multicultural News annual paper

Passionate About Literacy (2023 – Present)

Volunteer Coordinator and Communications Coordinator for literacy-based mentorship program

- Designed literacy and mentoring curriculum reaching K-12 students across five local partner sites
- Managed and conducted monthly training meetings with 70+ Passionate About Literacy volunteers
- Facilitated communications strategy, including social media, campus outreach, and recruitment campaigns

Boone County Imagination Library (2019 – Present)

Board Member and Social Media Coordinator for county Imagination Library chapter

- Manage Instagram and Facebook pages while creating weekly event-promotion flyers during the summer
- Volunteer at events, help create fundraising strategies and present our initiative to local clubs and businesses

Bright Beginnings Books (2011 – Present)

Founder and Secretary of a 501(c)(3) non-profit providing reading accessibility

- Distributed 12,000+ new books to underserved students in all 50 states and 12 other countries
- Secured more than $6,000 from area businesses through fundraising efforts and marketing
- Developed sustainable partnerships with the Arkansas State Police, medical clinics, and school districts

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

- Pre-Law Society (Fall 2024 – Present)
- Democracy Fellows Member (Fall 2024 – Present)
- The Queer South Zine Editorial Director (Spring 2024 – Present)
- Order of Omega Member (Fall 2023 – Present)
- Public Relations Student Society of America Member (Spring 2023 – Present)
- Society of Professional Journalists | Vice-President (Spring 2023 – Present)
- Sigma Tau Delta Member (Fall 2022 – Present)
- Future Women of Law and Politics Member (Fall 2022 – Present)
- Fulbright Honors Peer Mentor (Fall 2023 – Spring 2024)
- Hill Magazine Staff Reporter (Fall 2023 – Fall 2024)
- Razorback Yearbook Writer (Fall 2023 – Fall 2024)
- Zero Hour Arkansas | Roots Zine Copy Editor (Fall 2023 – Spring 2024)
- New Greek Council Member (Fall 2022 – Spring 2023)

AWARDS

- Omni Bill Moyers Investigative Reporting and Editors Travel Fund Recipient (2023)
- 2x Chancellor's List (4.0 grade-point average) and 3x Dean's list (3.75-3.99 grade-point average)
- President's Volunteer Service Award (2023: 100 service hours during the academic year)
- Top Academic Achievement Award for my pledge class in Delta Delta Delta (2023: 1 of 196)
- Sturgis Fellowship (2022 - Present: One of five annual awardees in Fulbright Honors College)
- Youth Service America Everyday Young Hero (2022: Recognized nationally)
- National Honor Society Scholarship Finalist (2022: Top 25 in the nation)
- Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation Semi-Finalist (2022: 2% of applicants advanced to this round)