

Addie Elizabeth Jones

addiej@uark.edu | 870-577-0389 | www.addie-jones.com | LinkedIn

EDUCATION

University of Arkansas | May 2026 | Fayetteville, AR

Journalism and Political Science major with minors in Gender Studies, Nonprofit Studies, and Rhetoric Writing

Fulbright Honors College Sturgis Fellow | Cumulative GPA: 3.903

Honors Thesis: Reading Between the Lines: Educational Equity and Book Access in Northwest Arkansas

EXPERIENCE

Email Intern (Jan 2026 – Present)

Middle Seat

- Draft fundraising emails and landing pages for progressive candidates driving donor engagement and action
- Conduct A/B testing, SEO optimization, and performance tracking to maximize campaign effectiveness
- Research policy positions to craft digital narratives aligned with candidate platforms and donor audiences

Copy Editor and Former Lifestyles Editor (May 2023 – Present)

Arkansas Traveler Newspaper

- Perform comprehensive AP style editing on all news and lifestyle stories for online and print publications
- Previously managed editorial strategy for all arts, culture, and opinion content reaching 30,000+ readers

Content Writing Intern (May 2024 – Present)

Sam M. Walton College of Business

- Write and edit weekly newsletter distributed to 17,000+ students, staff, parents, and alumni
- Develop strategic communications highlighting career opportunities, scholarships, and student resources

Legislative Policy Intern (December 2024 – May 2025)

Democratic Party of Arkansas

- Evaluate state legislation for alignment with progressive priorities, focusing on education and commerce bills
- Provide daily policy summaries to Democratic legislators in minority party (19/100 House, 6/30 Senate)

Government Affairs Intern (May 2025 – December 2025)

Center on Budget and Policy Priorities

- Researched and analyzed federal legislation impacting low-income Americans, preparing briefing materials and tracking policy developments across housing, nutrition, healthcare
- Tracked Congressional Record daily to distribute relevant bills to specialized policy teams for advocacy efforts

LEADERSHIP ACTIVITIES

Democracy Fellows (April 2025 – Present)

Marketing and Public Relations Officer

- Develop social media strategy and voter education content for civic engagement targeting 33,000+ students
- Secured $15,000 Women's Giving Circle grant for Civic Learning Week and Voter Education programming

Young Democrats at UofA (August 2024 - Present)

Chapter President

- Rebuilt chapter from zero to 100+ members through grassroots recruitment and coalition-building
- Coordinated campaign efforts and volunteer mobilization for election of Arkansas's first Latina state rep

Arkansas Delta Delta Delta (August 2022 – May 2025)

Director of Diversity, Equity and Inclusion

- Led 10-person committee implementing DEIAB initiatives for 600+ member sorority chapter across campus
- Developed comprehensive database of minority-owned businesses and created educational programming

COMMUNITY SERVICE

Lemke Journalism Project (2024 – Present)

Student Mentor

- Serve as a guide to 50+ high school students interested in diversity writing about journalism at the UofA
- Assist in the culmination and publication of a student-written Multicultural News annual paper

Boone County Imagination Library (2019 – Present)

Board Member and Social Media Coordinator for county Imagination Library chapter

- Manage Instagram and Facebook pages while creating weekly event-promotion flyers during the summer
- Volunteer at events, help create fundraising strategies and present our initiative to local clubs and businesses

Bright Beginnings Books (2011 – Present)

Founder and Secretary of a 501(c)(3) non-profit providing reading accessibility

- Distributed 13,000+ new books to underserved students in all 50 states and 12 other countries
- Secured more than $6,000 from area businesses through fundraising efforts and marketing
- Developed sustainable partnerships with the Arkansas State Police, medical clinics, and school districts

Passionate About Literacy (2023 – 2025)

Volunteer Coordinator and Communications Coordinator

- Designed literacy curriculum and coordinated 70+ volunteers mentoring K-12 students across five NWA sites
- Co-founded English Language Learning program serving schools with 50%+ ELL students
- Managed social media strategy, volunteer recruitment campaigns, and organizational merchandise development

CAMPUS INVOLVEMENT

- Hill Magazine Assistant Editor (May 2025 – Present)
- Pre-Law Society (Fall 2024 – Present)
- Order of Omega Member (Fall 2023 – Present)
- Public Relations Student Society of America Member (Spring 2023 – Present)
- Sigma Tau Delta Member (Fall 2022 – Present)
- Future Women of Law and Politics Member (Fall 2022 – Present)
- Society of Professional Journalists | Vice-President (Spring 2023 – Spring 2025)
- Fulbright Honors Peer Mentor (Fall 2023 – Spring 2024)
- Hill Magazine Staff Reporter (Fall 2023 – Fall 2024)
- Razorback Yearbook Writer (Fall 2023 – Fall 2024)
- Zero Hour Arkansas | Roots Zine Copy Editor (Fall 2023 – Spring 2024)
- New Greek Council Member (Fall 2022 – Spring 2023)

AWARDS

- $15,000 Women's Giving Circle Grant Recipient (Democracy Fellows programming, 2025)
- SPJ Diamond Awards Arts and Entertainment Finalist (2025)
- Omni Bill Moyers Investigative Reporting and Editors Travel Fund Recipient (2023)
- 2x Chancellor's List (4.0 grade-point average) and 3x Dean's list (3.75-3.99 grade-point average)
- President's Volunteer Service Award (2023: 100 service hours during the academic year)
- Sturgis Fellowship (2022 - Present: One of five annual awardees in Fulbright Honors College)
- Youth Service America Everyday Young Hero (2022: Recognized nationally)
- National Honor Society Scholarship Finalist (2022: Top 25 in the nation)
- Coca-Cola Scholars Foundation Semi-Finalist (2022: 2% of applicants advanced to this round)